
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, April 7, 2019

“REMEMBRANCE AND ANTICIPATION”

(Luke 22:14-20)

On Thursday of Holy Week, Jesus would spend his last evening with his disciples before his arrest and crucifixion. During the evening, he shared a Passover meal which marked the beginning of a new covenant. As we share the Lord’s Supper today, we will look at why this powerful moment in history has implications for us today and in the future.

REMEMBRANCE

The Lord’s Supper is not about reminiscing about a _____
_____. It is the present participation in a _____ that is with us right now.

John 6:35; Hebrews 4:14-16; Psalm 23:1-3

ANTICIPATION

The Lord’s Supper is a reminder of what is _____:
Jesus’ return to complete and perfect _____
_____.

Hebrews 9:28; II Thessalonians 1:7; Revelation 21:4-7

❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, April 7, 2019

“REMEMBRANCE AND ANTICIPATION”

(Luke 22:14-20)

On Thursday of Holy Week, Jesus would spend his last evening with his disciples before his arrest and crucifixion. During the evening, he shared a Passover meal which marked the beginning of a new covenant. As we share the Lord’s Supper today, we will look at why this powerful moment in history has implications for us today and in the future.

REMEMBRANCE

The Lord’s Supper is not about reminiscing about a historical Jesus in the past. It is the present participation in a living Christ that is with us right now.

John 6:35; Hebrews 4:14-16; Psalm 23:1-3

ANTICIPATION

The Lord’s Supper is a reminder of what is still to come: Jesus’ return to complete and perfect our deliverance from brokenness and pain

Hebrews 9:28; II Thessalonians 1:7; Revelation 21:4-7