
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, June 30, 2019

“CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS”

(Psalm 51)

Sin has become one of those “church words” that has lost its power in our lives. We tend to minimize the effects of sin in our lives and in our relationship with God. The truth is, sin separates us from God. Sin is always wrong, and it is always offensive to a Holy God. Thankfully, we have a God who loves us and wants to take away our sin...all our sin.

Sin is _____ (v. 5).
Ecclesiastes 7:20; Romans 3:23

Through God’s _____ sin is a _____ (v. 1-2).
Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5

Forgiveness _____ (v. 3).
1 John 1:9; Proverbs 28:13

Forgiveness _____ (v. 10).
Romans 10:13; 2 Timothy 2:21

Restoration _____ (v. 16-17).
Acts 17:30; 2 Corinthians 7:10

❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, June 30, 2019

“CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS”

(Psalm 51)

Sin has become one of those “church words” that has lost its power in our lives. We tend to minimize the effects of sin in our lives and in our relationship with God. The truth is, sin separates us from God. Sin is always wrong, and it is always offensive to a Holy God. Thankfully, we have a God who loves us and wants to take away our sin...all our sin.

Sin is everyone’s issue (v. 5).

Ecclesiastes 7:20; Romans 3:23

Through God’s mercy and grace sin is a fixable issue (v. 1-2).

Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5

Forgiveness starts with confession (v. 3).

1 John 1:9; Proverbs 28:13

Forgiveness creates restoration (v. 10).

Romans 10:13; 2 Timothy 2:21

Restoration leads to repentance (v. 16-17).

Acts 17:30; 2 Corinthians 7:10